

CHILD PROTECTION: FAILURE TO DISCLOSE POLICY

INTRODUCTION

Victory Christian College has an overarching priority that all children in its care are safe, feel safe and that child abuse is non-existent in our community.

This policy applies to the whole school community in supporting safe environments for all children and young people.

The obligations of 'failure to disclose' are separate from, and in addition to, Mandatory Reporting obligations.

Its purpose concerns the new criminal offence under the Victorian Crimes Act, commencing 27 October 2014, 'failure to disclose', which provides that:

All adults who form a reasonable belief that a sexual offence has been committed by an adult against a child under 16 has an obligation to report that information to police.

Failure to disclose the information to police is a criminal offence. An adult will not be guilty of the offence if they have a reasonable excuse for not disclosing the information. A reasonable excuse includes fear for safety, and where the information has already been disclosed.

Note:

It is a reasonable excuse to not disclose where a person believes on reasonable grounds that the information has already been disclosed to police and they have no further information to report; for example, where the person has already made a report under the mandatory reporting obligation specified in the Children, Youth and Families Act 2005.

This obligation requires teachers, doctors and other professionals to report concerns about child welfare to child protection authorities within the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS).

Under the existing mandatory reporting system, DHHS already passes on all allegations of child sexual abuse to police, so it will be a reasonable excuse for not reporting to police if a person has made a report to DHHS or reasonably believes a report has been made to DHHS. This ensures that people are not required to make multiple reports to different agencies.

A person does not have a reasonable excuse for failing to disclose sexual abuse if they are only concerned for the perceived interests of the perpetrator or any organisation. 'Perceived interests' includes reputation, legal liability or financial status.

KEY PRINCIPLES

A safe environment is required to protect children and young people from harm and to prevent staff from abusing their position of authority and trust.

The child and young person's ongoing safety and wellbeing must be the primary focus of all decision making.

School leaders and staff must be fully self-aware of, and comply with, their professional obligations and responsibilities.

The commitment to protecting children is embedded in the organisation's culture and responsibility for acting is understood and accepted at all levels of the organisation.

DEFINITIONS

Sexual Abuse of a child:

Sexual abuse occurs when a person uses power or authority over a child to involve the child in sexual activity and the child's parent or caregiver has not protected the child. Physical force is sometimes involved. Child sexual abuse involves a wide range of sexual activity, including physical activity and/or exposure of the child to pornography.

For the purposes of this offence, a child is a person under the age of 16 years. A young person is any person who comes under or may come under the care, supervision or authority of the school.

Reasonable belief:

A 'reasonable belief' is formed if a reasonable person in the same position would have formed the belief on the same grounds. A 'reasonable belief' is not the same as having proof.

IMPLEMENTATION

This policy applies to the whole school community in supporting safe environments for all children and young people.

- It applies to all adults in the school community to ensure they understand this responsibility (distinct from that of Mandatory Reporting) in protecting the safety and wellbeing of children and young people under the age of 16 in accordance with the Crimes Act 1958 (Vic).
- This policy and its requirements will be communicated annually to all staff and the wider school community.
- This policy and its requirements will be communicated to new staff during induction.
- Victory Christian College students will be educated of their obligations to disclose once they are over eighteen years of age.
- Responses to any allegations will be undertaken promptly, with well documented records retained securely and confidentially.
